

Meta Zen by Yumeng Li Wins Iron A' Design Award in Toy, Game and Hobby Products Design Category

Innovative Tactile Meditation Playset Recognized for Excellence in Toy Design

COMO, CO, ITALY, December 20, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The A' Design Award, a highly respected and well-recognized award in the field of toy design, has announced Yumeng Li's Meta Zen as a winner in the Toy, Game and Hobby Products Design category. This prestigious recognition highlights the significance of Meta Zen's innovative design within the toy industry.

Meta Zen's tactile meditation playset aligns with current trends in the toy industry, addressing the need for non-screen anxiety relief and accessible, inclusive design. The playset's modular system and Zen-inspired aesthetics offer practical benefits for users of all ages and abilities, promoting relaxation and creativity.

Yumeng Li's Meta Zen stands out in the market with its unique combination of minimalist forms, parametric design, and biodegradable materials. The playset's reconfigurable modules allow for endless variations of dynamic sand patterns, from small table objects to large-scale installations. Embedded magnets facilitate precise alignment, making the playset accessible to visually impaired individuals, elders, and users with hand tremors.

Winning the Iron A' Design Award serves as motivation for Yumeng Li and her team to continue exploring innovative designs that prioritize inclusivity, sustainability, and the transformative power of play. This recognition may inspire future projects that push the boundaries of toy design while addressing the diverse needs of users worldwide.
