

FGI Overflows with Bathroom Innovations at KBIS

Named 2024's KBIS "Brand with the Biggest Bite", FGI drives the future of commercial and consumer bathroom fixtures with multiple launches at this year's show

EAST HANOVER, NJ, UNITED STATES, February 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- FGI Industries, Ltd. (Nasdag: FGI), a leading global supplier of kitchen and bath products, today announced a multitude of bathroom fixture innovations at KBIS (Kitchen & Bath Industry Show), North America's largest tradeshow dedicated to the kitchen and bath design industry, in Las Vegas, NV. Last year, FGI launched their Flush Guard™ Anti-Overflow toilet line - and was awarded the coveted "Brand with the Biggest Bite." This year, FGI is launching even more innovations to transform the future of bathroom fixtures - from expanded overflow toilet offerings to transformative shower wall systems and more, all on display at Booth N550.

FGI launched significant innovations across its Flush Guard™ Anti-Overflow Toilets, Craft + Main® Fixtures Line, Contrac® Professional Plumbing Line, and JETCOAT® Shower Wall System Collections at KBIS 2025 in Las Vegas, NV.

Since introducing the patented Flush Guard™ anti-overflow drain system in FGI's CRAFT + MAIN® brand toilets at last year's show, this breakthrough in toilet technology that "cures Overflowbia" has revolutionized the toilet industry and is now being licensed to other well-known brands, including ProFlo® and Seasons® toilets.

Skirted 2-Piece and 1-Piece Flush Guard™ toilets with a concealed trapway Clean Edge™ Rimless Flush Guard™ toilet with Ultra Clean Glaze™ Extra-tall Flush Guard™ toilet for easier use by those with limited mobility (or long legs) ntroduction of New Industry-Leading JETCOAT® Shower Wall System Collections Part of FGI'S CRAFT + MAIN® brand, the popular JETCOAT® Shower Walls will debut new FLEX™ and REFLECTIONS™ collections at KBIS. The JETCOAT® FLEX™ collection is designed to be the nstaller's first choice for tub and shower remodeling, with a wide variety of sizes and options to fit any project. In the REFLECTIONS™ collection, JETCOAT® brings together its most style-forward designs, each matched to a coordinating accent panel.
ETCOAT® Shower Wall Systems continue to offer the look and feel of real tile with simple, one- person / one-day installation and include the following updates: Horizontal interlocking panels (instead of vertical) offer full floor-to-ceiling wall height with panel-lock seams hidden in the real-feel etched grout lines to create waterproof joints – without the need for caulk
Lightweight panels offer fast and easy installation, with effortless handling for placement over backer board or old tile – no bracing required Custom niches sized to match each JETCOAT® collection and fitting between existing studs Smaller boxes that fit inside an SUV, for easier transportation.
Expansion of Contrac [®] Professional Plumbing Brand in the US Market Contrac [®] , FGI's professional plumbing brand, continues its expansion from Canada into the US, pringing an extensive line of residential and commercial bathroom fixtures built for professionals. The lineup includes new toilet models featuring FGI's patented Flush Guard™ Anti-Overflow technology, contemporary vanities in both floor- and wall-mounted designs, and the new SWS Shower Wall System with JETCOAT® technology.
