

SGF GLOBAL ORGANIZED A PETRO-PHYSICS WORKSHOP IN THE EXPLORATION AND PRODUCTION DIVISION OF PEMEX

MéXICO , VILLAHERMOSA, MéXICO, March 1, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SGF Global, a leading company in human resources consulting with a presence in various locations around the world, sponsored the first Workshop on Reservoir Petrophysical Evaluation which was attended by engineers belonging to the Exploration and Production Division of Petroleos Mexicanos (Pemex).

It is very pleasing to us that PEMEX entrusts us to support and strengthen the training and development of its engineers. We hope to continue expanding this type of workshop with all their staff.

The purpose of this initiative was to provide a forum for the dialogue and exchange of experiences in the area of petrophysics and the subsequent implementation of newly acquired ideas from these experiences in actual projects, thereby achieving a more concrete vision of this discipline.

“It is very pleasing to us that PEMEX entrusts us to support and strengthen the training and development of its engineers. We hope to continue expanding this type of workshop with all their staff”, said Mauricio Sion, Director of SGF Global.

The 23 young professionals attending the workshop had the opportunity to learn from case studies and their attendant implemented solutions by our specialists in the following countries: Venezuela, Colombia, United States, and Mexico. We hope to organize a similar workshop in the near future.
