PUNE, INDIA, December 9, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ --

The analysts forecast the logistics market in APAC to grow at a CAGR of 13.08% during the period 2016-2020.

Logistics is an important element of supply chain management (SCM). It includes the transportation, storage, and distribution of goods from the point of origin to the destination. Customers outsource their logistics and transportation functions to service providers that specialize in handling logistics functions like freight and forwarding, transportation, and warehousing. In addition, these providers also offer various value-added services related to logistics like packaging. Economic growth across industries including fast moving consumer goods (FMCG) and automobile and auto components increases the demand for logistics services in APAC.
