February in the Florida Keys features such fun events as a longstanding art festival, a derby to remove an invasive species, a house and garden tour, and family-oriented fishing tournament.

Artists and craftspeople are to exhibit their work at the 23rd annual Pigeon Key Art Festival Feb. 4 and 5 at the Marathon Community Park, MM 49. The art festival includes live music and delicious food. Marine artist Wyland plans to be on hand to create ink paintings to be auctioned live as part of the annual fundraiser. At the Festival, guests will find exhibits and displays, touch tanks, hands-on activities and even a puppet show that bring marine and wildlife education to life. Event proceeds benefit the Pigeon Key Foundation. Attendees and participants will find luxury Florida Keys accommodations available at Coral Lagoon Resort Villas & Marina and Indigo Reef Resort Villas & Marina in Marathon, and Village at Hawks Cay Villas & Marina in Duck Key. The resorts offer with free Wi-Fi Internet and free unlimited local and long distance calls, as well as the up to 50 percent special discount. Guests can also receive a complimentary night with a minimum stay of three nights at Village at Hawks Cay or five nights at Coral Lagoon or Indigo Reef.

During the Lionfish Derby for Divers in Key Largo Feb. 11, teams of up to four divers compete for cash and prizes. Derby divers who successfully remove invasive lionfish from sanctuary waters can win for most, largest and smallest lionfish. Divers can participate in a derby from their own private vessel or join a professional dive operator's charter. Participants can enjoy luxury Key Largo accommodations at Mariner's Resort Villas & Marina, including courtesy Wi-Fi Internet and unlimited local and long distance calls.
