Private Tutoring

Private Tutoring Market Status; the Best Is Yet to Come”

Nidhi Bhawsar

Private tutoring is a type of shadow tutoring system. It is mainly offered externally to the mainstream education system. This method basically refers to good examination preparation for students to help them score well in various tests. Tutors provide one-to-one engagement with the students. The growing rivalry among the students for receiving admission into renowned colleges, schools and universities will help to boost the global private tutoring market.
