

Joyous Montessori Featured in Recent Interview

Vandana Semwal, the founder of Joyous Montessori, recently spoke in an interview with Ideamensch

KELLER, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, June 3, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Recently, Vandana Semwal, the founder and owner of the Joyous Montessori Franchise, was featured in a one-on-one interview with Ideamensch. She shared why she started Joyous Montessori and how the school has grown from its initial stages to present day.

Providing children with early education based on the globally renowned Montessori philosophy, Joyous Montessori operates in Texas, with locations in Keller, Lewisville, and Fort Worth. Locations are independently owned and operated and have trained and certified staff members that are passionate about children.

In her interview, Vandana Semwal shared that the name for Joyous Montessori came from the idea that she wanted the name to be simple and she wanted it to signify happiness and positivity.

Mrs. Semwal also explained how she thinks employees are the backbone of any organization — and Joyous Montessori is no exception.

"Hire people with the right attitude as everything else can be taught," said Mrs. Semwal.

"Take good care of the employees in tough times; with the COVID-19 situation the children's attendance is down by 80% but we did not layoff any teachers."
