Nigerian Americans in the US making efforts to alleviate hunger and poverty in Nigeria.

RIVERSIDE, CALIFORNIA, US, December 22, 2020
/EINPresswire.com/ -- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Riverside CA...Today, Guaranty Investment Company, Inc. made history by becoming the very first organization to support and sponsor the initiatives between Nigerian American Public Affairs Foundation (NAPAC Foundation) and Sweet Sensations Confectionery Ltd., to feed Nigerians through the Sweet Sensation Food Security Initiative (SS-FOSI). The goal of NAPAC and SSFOSI is to feed 600,000 Nigerians this coming holidays.

This food security initiative is NAPAC Foundation's response to hunger in Nigeria. Guaranty Investment Company, Inc. has taken leadership by being the first Nigerian American owned company to donate towards this humanitarian cause as part of its corporate social responsibility – thanks to the philanthropy of its president, Mr. Toyin Dawodu.

According to Mr. Toyin Dawodu, “there is so much suffering in the World right now. Nigeria having been dubbed the “poverty capital of the world” is especially vulnerable given the COVID-19 pandemic, so this initiative developed by NAPAC Foundation and SS-FOSI is an idea whose time has come says Mr. Dawodu, who is also a patron of the organization. “I am committed to helping NAPAC Foundation address the issue of food security in Nigeria by financially supporting its goal to feed as many as 600,000 people this coming holiday season.

The idea of providing high quality meals to poor Nigerians was borne out of NAPAC Foundation leadership's realization of their dual role of giving back to the land of their birth, and to help their community both here in the USA and Nigeria. Mr. Taye Doherty, the Chair of NAPAC Foundation

Head shot for Toyin Dawodu
