UNITED STATES, March 17, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- "The United States Senate is poised to vote on the so-called Equality Act [H.R. 5 2021]. This bill is the most aggressive restriction of religious freedom and speech ever attempted in this nation," according to Richard Harris, executive director, Truth & Liberty Coalition.

Our goal is to educate audiences and connect with resources and groups across the nation to help them impact their own spheres of influence.”

The bill has a very real prospect of becoming law, according to Harris. “Unless Republicans can mount a filibuster, which takes 60 votes to break, or can bring over a Democrat to their side, the Equality Act is likely to pass the Senate.”

“Educating people of faith to engage in public affairs is important for maintaining biblical values in our society,” said Richard Harris, Truth & Liberty executive director.

Established in 2019 by Andrew Wommack and other

Christian leaders, the organization offers a variety of programs, tools and resources to be able to focus on key social issues and U.S. congressional legislation being debated.

“We find often that churchgoers and pastors don’t know where to start,” said a Truth & Liberty official. “Our goal is to educate audiences and connect with resources and groups across the nation to help them impact their own spheres of influence.”

Christian ministry Liberty Counsel finds if passed the Equality Act, among other things, will mean:

- Biological men will have the “right” to use women’s bathrooms, showers and locker rooms—even in schools.
- Churches will be forced to provide equal access to LGBTQ ceremonies if the facilities are open to natural marriage ceremonies.

- Churches and religious schools would be forced to hire staff involved in LGBTQ conduct; give men access to restrooms, locker rooms, showers and sports; allow boys to bunk with girls on camping and overnight trips; and provide insurance to cover hormones, mutilating surgeries, and chemical and surgical abortions.
- Noncompliant churches and schools will lose federal, state and local tax exemptions and accreditations.
- Beginning in pre-K, children will be taught that they can choose their gender, will be encouraged to experiment with each other to find their "identities" and will be able to demand opposite, both and neither sex pronouns (he for a girl, zie for neither, mx for both).
- Pregnancy centers will be forced to provide abortion referrals.

The Truth & Liberty Coalition, in cooperation with Family Policy Alliance is sending an "Action Alert" to urge Americans to contact their United States senators and tell them to stop the Equality Act.
