Zhao has a number of years of experience in the profession, including a previous two-year stint at WGP Global, and has also taken charge of the EMBA admission program at Jiaotong University, as well as being emcee for various international companies and a spokesperson for the Qipao company through which she founded her own Qipao brand named 旗袍.

“I’m very happy to be returning to WGP Global in the capacity of Senior Analyst. Having worked with co-founders, David and Christopher Orchard, in the past, they are well aware of what I can bring to the company and how my expertise will benefit them. I can’t wait to get started,” Zhao noted.

Co-founder of WGP Global, David Orchard, said: “We are delighted to bring Amelie back to WGP. We worked with her for two years between 2015-2017 before she left to take up a position in China. Her experience in helping Chinese entrepreneurs to access international markets will be of great value to us, and this hire is another step in the right direction for WGP Global.”
