Past year's award winners include "Lontano Dagli Occhi", "The Divine Order", "White Right: Meeting the Enemy", and "The Price of Free". They were awarded at the closing ceremony at the world-renowned Monte Carlo Television Festival, which was established in 1961 by Prince Rainier III and Princess Grace, the former actress Grace Kelly. The festival is celebrating its 60th anniversary this June, and as its CEO Laurent Puons says, "When an event marks its 60th anniversary, it has earned a place in history. The Monte-Carlo Television Festival has done so in style, and its own history is now written with a capital H."
