Mountain Peaks is well known and highly regarded for offering same-day appointments. In addition, patients can find access to care in the following forms:

- Routine Care. When you want to schedule an appointment, simply give us a call. Most days, we will do our best to fit you right in.

- Curbside. Whether you’re too sick to come inside or feel the need for social distancing, we will come out to your car to make things easier.
- Walk In. We are committed to serve you as quickly as we can. Some days get very busy, so it’s usually best to call ahead.

“The COVID-19 pandemic created a crisis for all of us, and it taught us a few things as well,” said Durrans. “We will continue offering alternate ways to access our services as long as patient
