This iconic overlook structure directs views to the Saddleback Mountains, greater Irvine and to internal areas of Rise Park at Great Park Neighborhoods.

“Wow!” said Gold Nugget judges. “There were some amazing amenities in this category, but Rise Park lived up to its name and rose to the top. This amenity space supports some of the higher density areas within the overall neighborhood, so it has the challenge and opportunity to serve as the community’s communal “backyard.” A continuous pedestrian green threads through the neighborhood with three distinct amenity spaces to provide unique destinations that appeal to the diverse population within the surrounding neighborhoods.
