

Scott Cooper Florida Scholarship Awards Prize To Caleb Keilen of Oakland Community College

The Scott Cooper Florida Scholarship is unique in the sense that it requires students to write essays that are thought-provoking and controversial.

MIAMI, FL, USA, December 1, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Scott Cooper Project is pleased to announce that Caleb Keilen of Oakland Community College is the latest winner of the scholarship. Caleb is planning to transfer to Michigan State University to pursue a degree in Supply Chain Management at MSU's Broad School of Business.

This scholarship application required each student to submit an essay on one of three topics. Edward chose question #1 and J.R.R. Tolkien as the subject matter for his essay.

- (1) If you could meet with any person (living or dead) for an hour, who would it be?
- (2) What is your favorite Netflix series and why?
- (3) What is your biggest failure and what have you learned from it?

Caleb's winning essay, "J.R.R. Tolkien – A Relatively Obscure Dead Person" can be read on the Scott Cooper Miami Scholarship website.

ABOUT THE SCOTT COOPER MIAMI SCHOLARSHIP

The Scott Cooper Miami Scholarship is an arm of the Scott J Cooper Miami Project. It is a private research organization that provides an investigative reporting platform. It proposes solutions to public policy challenges and focuses on “forgotten communities” throughout the world with the goal of making them safer and more secure, healthier, and more prosperous. By creating awareness through various digital marketing platforms, Scott Cooper Miami partners with small organizations, to give them a voice and fight for those that have been unable to deliver their message.

The Scott Cooper Miami Project is nonprofit and nonpartisan and committed to the public interest.
