ALL WEEKEND ☐

Sharing Our Desert's LGBTQ+ History, an exhibit featuring the chronological history of events, organizations and individuals who have helped to make the greater Palm Springs area the welcoming place that it is for LGBTQ+ individuals today. The exhibit is FREE to all. More information here. Mary Pickford Theater, 36-850 Pickfair Cathedral City

WHY: Cathedral City's Communications/Events Manager Chris Parman says, "Cathedral City LGBT Days is a time to recognize the strength in our diversity, appreciate our similarities, and stand united for the equal rights of all Americans. We honor the lives, history, and wonderful accomplishments the LGBTQ+ community has contributed in making Cathedral City one of the most gay-friendly cities in America. Year after year, the Human Rights Campaign Foundation has ranked Cathedral City with a perfect "100" score, and that is a testament to the city's belief in equality for both our residents and visitors alike."

Who We Are: Cathedral City

Cathedral City takes its name from Col. Henry Washington of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, who noted the area's canyons resembled the interior of a grand cathedral. Cathedral City is dedicated to providing a quality lifestyle and welcoming business climate. Cathedral City is a destination of friendly neighborhoods, lush country clubs, diverse shopping and unlimited business potential. More and more people are discovering that Cathedral City has become a great destination for the LGBT community to live, dine, stay and play!
