The success of Indisputable highlights how hungry people are for truth, precise commentary and relevant news.”

Dr. Rashad Richey

“The success of Indisputable highlights how hungry people are for truth, precise commentary and relevant news. There will always be something special about truth, and we are committed to delivering truth daily,” said Dr. Richey. The billboards will be visible in 10 cities across the country in tandem with TYT’s 20th Anniversary celebration and Indisputable celebrating its one year anniversary on TYT.

Part of the billboard campaign will feature engagement with TYT’s audience, encouraging them to take photos with the billboard using social media. The billboards will run for 30 days in these cities:

Times Square, New York City, New York
Los Angeles, California

Atlanta, Georgia
Miami, Florida
Houston, Texas
Las Vegas, Nevada
Jacksonville, Florida
Memphis, Tennessee
Conyers, Georgia
Jackson, Mississippi

TYT founder and CEO Cenk Uygur said, "Indisputable is the hottest show on the planet. Rashad truly lives up to his show's name, both his arguments and his numbers are indisputable!"

In addition to the billboard campaign, Indisputable celebrates one year with several exciting launches lined up for the audience. To commemorate the milestone, there will be new Indisputable merchandise released in ShopTYT and YouTube Channel Membership for the show, offering members-only perks like badges, emojis, access to special content, and more. This is in addition to the membership available on TYT.com. In addition, the show will extend to 90 minutes in response to audience demand.

TYT's Head of Programming Judith Benezra said, "Indisputable's meteoric rise to 'America's Fastest Growing News Show on Television' is a testament to Dr. Richey's authenticity, the trusted connection he has made with his audience, and the quality of the content. That this show's reporting has also galvanized positive social change... well, that right there is the embodiment of TYT's mission."

In comparison to shows on CNN, MSNBC, Fox News, CNBC, and Fox Business, the Hicks Evaluation Group's study found that Indisputable is the fastest growing television news show in America based on traditional and new media methods of content distribution and consumption. The study found Indisputable averaged:

YouTube: Indisputable averaged 18 million views per month, nearly 1 billion impressions, and 7 million watch hours within the 6-month survey timeframe.

Facebook: 25.3 million viewers a month, 263 million minutes of watch time, and 8.1 million audience engagement total.

Combined linear, cable, OTT and podcast: 43.6 million viewers a month.

Since the show's launch Indisputable has welcomed guests such as: Senator Jon Ossoff, Killer Mike, Congressional candidate Nina Turner, filmmaker Michael Moore, and many others. On Indisputable, Dr. Richey delivers insightful commentary on the top news stories of the day, and debates conservative-leaning guests in the segment 'The Bullpen.' Most recently, he engaged in a highly viewed debate against conservative Charlie Kirk. Additionally, Indisputable exposes people caught on camera weaponizing their privilege while discussing the dangerous consequences of their actions in his regular segment 'I Wish a Karen Would.'
