

Optasia World Global, American Management University to co-host business summit on education in Lagos

LAGOS, NIGERIA, June 17, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Optasia World Global – the management consultancy and training company that strives to facilitate productivity and success for its clients – is proud to announce that it will co-host the annual business summit and international honors ceremony with the American Management University and the California Metropolitan University.

The two-day event will take place at Vintage Hall in Lagos, Nigeria from July 8 -9. Admittance will be free for the general public to attend, listen to the speakers, and network with successful educators and businesspeople. Exact times are as follows: July 8 from 10 am to 2 pm and July 9 from 12 pm to 6 pm.

This year the theme of the event will be “Education: The viable source of innovation in the economy of every nation.”

Multiple nominations have already been made for recipients of honorary Ph. D.s and there is still time to nominate deserving individuals.

“We are very excited to co-host this annual event with Optasia World Global and to award honorary doctorates to some extremely worthy recipients.
