The destination wedding market consists of sales of destination wedding services by entities (organizations, sole traders, and partnerships) that refer to weddings that take place outside of the city or town where the soon-to-be-married couple resides. The destination wedding services involve planning, booking, and assistance with various ceremonies. The term "destination wedding" refers to a wedding that is planned ahead of time in a location, usually a high-end resort, where the couple, wedding party, and guests stay for roughly a week and where all wedding-related activities take place.

Global Destination Wedding Market Trends

Eco-friendly weddings in natural locations have emerged as a key trend shaping the destination wedding market outlook. According to the destination wedding market analysis, people are attempting to be more environmentally conscious these days, which is why they are opting for eco-friendly weddings in natural settings. Destination wedding service providers provide incredibly sustainable and natural sites, which helps the market flourish. For instance, according to a 2022 real wedding survey by Theknot, a US-based wedding planning company, 70% of couples agreed if they planned to have a marriage in 2022 to include environment-friendly activities and décor such as buying second-hand or up-cycled items, using recycled paper items, and minimizing the use of single-use plastic. One-third of the couples believed that the vendors should be more proactive in providing eco-friendly solutions.
