

Members from the International Religious Freedom (IRF) Roundtable in Pakistan Attend the IRF Summit in Washington DC

Faith Leaders and Human Rights Activists from Pakistan Attend the IRF Summit and the National Prayer Breakfast in DC

WASHINGTON, DC, USA, February 1, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- AMMWECC is honored to announce that seven members of the IRF Roundtable in Pakistan are attending the IRF Summit in Washington DC. The IRF Summit is a “convening of a coalition of individuals and organizations who passionately support religious freedom around the globe. The Summit will connect resources and advocates interested in religious freedom and highlight the personal testimonies of survivors of religious persecution and restrictions on religious freedom. Bringing attention to the plight of religious adherents who are persecuted, individually and collectively, will grow the grassroots and global movement for religious freedom.”

Prominent Pakistani faith leaders and activists including Anila Ali, Imam Muhammad Siddiqui, Father James Channan, Huma Adnan, Parishae Adnan, Adam Reingold, Seemab Asif, Kalpna, Muhamad Kashif Mirza, and Elizabeth Morris will represent minority groups and share their perspectives on women’s rights, religious freedom, and interfaith harmony in Pakistan. This is a significant opportunity for these
