Leticia Smith, CEO of Risas y Sonrisas Spanish for Kids, A DotCom Magazine Exclusive Interview

Leticia Smith is very passionate about developing fun and creative materials to teach Spanish to children. What an interesting interview with an amazing entrepreneur.”

Andy Jacob

ABOUT Risas y Sonrisas Spanish for Kids

Developing fun and creative materials to teach Spanish to children has been my true passion over the past 20 years.

“Risas y Sonrisas SpanishforKids.com” is an affordable, multi-grade, multi-sensory, multi-media curriculum to teach fun and engaging Spanish lessons to children in elementary school K-5. Today, our award-winning curriculum is in use across the country and overseas by hundreds of schools and thousands of families.

I consider myself fortunate to have had all kinds of experiences in my life. I've always looked for opportunities that related to my passions. Now I can see how these have connected and had a great impact on the success I am having today. It's satisfying to know that following my dreams has achieved results far exceeding my expectations.

Since 1998, Risas y Sonrisas Spanish for Kids has been helping teachers everywhere by providing them with interactive, easy-to-use, Spanish language learning programs. Our curriculum is comprehensive — employing songs, visual aids, games, music, and a variety of printed and digital materials to not only teach kids Spanish, but also to inspire them to use it! Whether you are teaching in a traditional classroom setting, homeschooling, or tutoring children in-person or online, Risas y Sonrisas Spanish for Kids has a program for you.

Leticia Smith joins other leading CEO's, founders, and thought leaders that have participated in this informative and popular interview show.
