

L.A.B gear up to tour Australia, USA, Europe & The UK

L.A.B ANNOUNCE THEIR TOUR DATES FOR 2023 AS THEIR SINGLE, 'TAKE IT AWAY' BECOMES THEIR LATEST HIT

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, April 6, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- 'Take It Away' brings together all elements of the L.A.B sound - reggae-inspired groove, soulful guitars, tinges of rock & soaring vocals from frontman Joel Shadbolt. Tracked and recorded live in one take, 'Take It Away' captures L.A.B at their best, playing live together and bringing an unmatched energy to the recording.

L.A.B closed out another massive year with the release of this single, gearing fans up for the release of their much-anticipated new album in early-2023. 2022 saw L.A.B win Best Group, Album of the Year, Single of the Year & Best Roots Artist for the second-straight year at the New Zealand Music Awards, becoming the first artist to win those awards two years in a row.

We are delighted to see 'Take It Away' certified gold and consistently remain the most popular song across all radio formats in New Zealand.”

Mikee, Loop Recordings

They were awarded Best Record at the inaugural Rolling Stone New Zealand Music Awards and closed out the year by being named with the Top Four most-streamed songs in NZ on Spotify, and three of the Top Four most-streamed songs in NZ on Apple Music. 'Take It Away' is set to be a new fan-favourite addition to an ever-growing catalogue.

Off the back of this new single the band will head out to
