

Legacy PAC commences fundraising efforts led by Mark Finchem to help elect the next generation of conservative leaders

Partner's Mark Finchem, Jared Craig and Stan Fitzgerald officially launched PAC fundraising efforts July 5th to support America First candidates

WASHINGTON, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, USA, July 6, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Legacy PAC political action committee was formed several months ago with the concept of being funded and active for the 2024 election cycle. After some restructuring of personnel and a high profile kick off earlier this year, in Washington DC, fundraising efforts have officially begun.

The PAC's ethos are clearly aligned with the America First ideology. With a finalized board consisting of Trump loyalists, the venture is poised to attempt making significant advancements in the movement known as "Saving America".

"We waited for the right team to be in place before we launched our fundraising efforts, the PAC now has the right team so it's Trump speed ahead " said Stan Fitzgerald Legacy PAC partner.
