

Experience The Rich History and High-Energy Performances of Rock 'N' Roll in Music City

Authentic Rock 'N' Roll Venue Bowie's Nashville Diversifies The Live Music Scene In Downtown Nashville

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, UNITED STATES, July 28, 2023
/EINPresswire.com/ -- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Friday, July 28th, 2023

The minute you step into Bowie's Nashville, you are electrified with the gritty and edginess of rock n' roll, fused with the empowering love and passion of the genre, which now pays tribute to the home of that era. As you enter this 600-seat venue off 3rd Avenue N, your eyes capture the illuminating neon signs, which have become downtown Nashville's new iconic 'Bowie's Bolts.' Embracing the pure of rock 'n' roll, the electric rock-infused bar, restaurant, and live music venue Bowie's Nashville

I always loved rock 'n' roll, and I wanted to give the city of Nashville—both locals and tourists—the opportunity for another option. And that was rock 'n' roll.”

Owner of Bowie's Nashville, Gary Bowie

entertains locals and tourists with the thrill of 1970s and 1980s rock tribute bands, prominent names, and aspiring rock artists. Located just a block from the famous Printers Alley District, Bowie's is a must-see venue, giving you an experience unlike any other each time you walk through the door. As one of the newest local rock 'n' roll venues in Music City, Bowie's offers nightly events, live music, and drink specials that pay tribute to the icons of rock music.

The vintage 'Bowie's Bolts' glow the venue that hosts some of the greatest musical acts. These include Derek St. Holmes, famed vocalist, songwriter, and guitarist for Ted Nugent, who wrote Cat Scratch Fever and performed during the opening weekend of Bowie's Nashville. Also gracing the stage are local and touring musicians from bands like Accept, Staind, and Vixen.

Bowie's Nashville recently hosted the perfectly fitting 2023 RockGodz Hall of Fame Award Show, dinner, and live concert from inductees Vanilla Fudge, whose members include Carmine Appice, Mark Stein, Vince Martell, Pete Dinklage, and in honorarium, Tim Bogert and Pat Travers, the iconic powerhouse rock guitarist. The award show gave recognition to the musicians who built the legacy of rock music. A movement penned since 2009 and the first-ever RockGodz Hall of Fame Award show held in Nashville acknowledged the valuable contribution that their inductees have made to the rock 'n' roll legacy.

The inductees included but were not limited to: Sandy Gennaro, an American rock drummer and musician who has recorded and toured with Pat Travers, Cyndi Lauper, and Joan Jett; Todd Sharp, a lead guitarist who has toured with Christine McVie, Mick Fleetwood, and Rod Stewart; Steve Popovich, a legendary record promoter for CBS Records under Clive Davis; Present at Cleveland Internal Records and Polygram Records Nashville; Bob Bender, an established host and producer on The Business Side of Music and Tom Zutaut, who founded the American record label The Enclave and former A&R executive for Geffen Records best known for signing Guns N' Roses.

Every Thursday and Saturday night, join the local rock 'n' roll band Loose Lips at their Bowie's residency as they play a mix of rock 'n' roll originals and covers during their energetic performance.

This August and September, Bowie's is scheduled to host a variety of iconic tribute bands including, That Arena Rock Show, Hot Blooded, Rock United, The Wildflowers, Wrecking Crue, Escape, and Vinyl Playground.

Tribute band That Arena Rock Show will be playing classic rock 'n' roll, covering artists like Led Zeppelin, Aerosmith, AC/DC, Bon Jovi, Guns N' Roses, and more.
