PEACE with John Krondes is remarkably the American Sound Studio Band that recorded "Suspicious Minds" with Elvis Presley in 1969. In addition are the original Jordanaires, Stamps, Imperials, Sweet Inspirations, Millie Kirkham, Elvis Horns, and more. Even more mystifying is the viral news that John Krondes has near 100 New Recordings with Elvis Presley's original musicians, and now with even more music legends. The John Krondes masters also include Elvis Presley's TCB Band, the King's drummers DJ Fontana, Gene Chrisman, and Ronnie Tutt, and many other musicians that played on hundreds of Presley's recordings. Elvis Presley's Best Friend and 20 Year Road Manager Joe Esposito headed the John Krondes and Elvis Hit Making Team project and started waves of new recordings until his death in 2016.

Super-fantastically, many of the world's biggest music distributors and promoters have also recently joined the John Krondes and Elvis Hit Team project to bring this momentous new Memphis Rock Music to the world. A
