Ana joined LCR in 2015 as a Client Relations Associate, assisting visa-seeking clients from Brazil and South Africa. While initially focused on client services, Ana's role quickly expanded to include marketing, sales, onboarding, investor relations and PR. Her most recent roles as Director, Brazil and Senior Director of Marketing strengthened her commitment to LCR clients while broadening her expertise in global marketing.

"Ana is a true triple threat at LCR – with the ability to execute tasks across our marketing, commercial and client services teams," said Sherman Baldwin, CEO of LCR. "Her range and depth of expertise has consistently impressed us, making her a real asset to our organization."

In addition to a cross-functional understanding of LCR's business operations, Ana's journey from Brazil to Europe reflects her ability to adapt to diverse markets. As Senior Director of Europe, Ana will be based in Lisbon and work with partners and clients interested in the Portugal Golden Visa program, as well as helping European clients looking to obtain residency in the United States through the EB-5 Visa program.

"One of the pleasures of working with immigration by investment is that I became very close to our clients," said Ana. "It is very satisfying to provide the families we assist with solutions that can help make their dreams come true. I look forward to contributing to LCR's growth and assisting more families to expand their global footprint."

"Ana's growth at LCR is a good example of LCR living up to its family values. We try to support team members in their professional and personal development. We have 4 or 5 people in the company whom we have relocated across the regions. We help our clients go global and are happy to support our team the same way," said Suresh Rajan, Founder and Executive Chairman of LCR.

Ana Elisa Bezerra

LCR congratulates Ana on this well-deserved promotion and looks forward to her continued success as she leads the charge in developing our presence in Europe.
