governmental and civil society organizations, advocating for gender equality and the rights and empowerment of women and girls in all their diversity at the United Nations, is hosting a Peace Rally commemorating the 23rd anniversary of UN Security Council Resolution 1325 which addresses the impact of war on women, and reaffirms the role of women in the prevention and resolution of conflicts, negotiations, peace-building, peacekeeping, humanitarian response and in post-conflict reconstruction. We aim to raise awareness about the resolution's importance and its impact on global peace and security. Moreover, the event will provide a platform for diverse voices to unite and call for collective action toward a more peaceful and gender-inclusive world.

Speakers from the UN Community, NGOs and Civil Society will lend their voices to our call for peace.

All are invited to join NGO CSW/NY for the walk and rally:

Date: Wednesday, 25 October 2023

Time: 1:00 - 2:00 pm EDT

From: Church Center for the UN (777 United Nations Plaza, New York, NY 10017)
