

Christmas Without Lights To Be Held in Raleigh on Saturday, December 16

This holiday gathering by Insightful Visionaries, Inc. will feature music, food, games, and vendors.

RALEIGH, NC, USA, December 12, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Carolyn Marshall Covington, President and Founder of Insightful Visionaries Inc., a non-profit (501C3) organization founded in 2016 dedicated to empowering individuals with disabilities, is excited to announce the upcoming Christmas Without Lights event to ensure that people with disabilities, especially the visually impaired, get to experience the joys of Christmas.

“Christmas Without Lights,” now in its fifth year, is set to take place on December 16th, 2023, from 5:00 PM to 8:00 PM at the Body of Christ Church Dream Center located at 5616 Fox Road, Raleigh, NC 27616.

The Spirit of collaboration is at the heart of Christmas Without Lights. It represents our collective effort to share the true spirit of Christmas by giving back to the disabled community.”
*Insightful Visionaries founder,
Carolyn Marshall Covington*

Experience the magic of the season at this event with holiday cheer, food, Christmas sing-alongs, games, and vendors for holiday shopping. There will be musical guests performing, including saxophonist Wilkens Eugene, pianist Gilbert Thomas and the Miller Family.

“Christmas Without Lights” is a tradition that unites communities and spreads the magic of the season.

Through partnerships with local organizations, Insightful Visionaries, Inc. seeks to amplify the impact of this event. This year, Insightful Visionaries, Inc. is proud to announce its partnership with the Foundation Fighting Blindness.

Insightful Visionaries founder, Carolyn Marshall Covington, says, “The Spirit of collaboration is at the heart of Christmas Without Lights. It represents our collective effort to share the true spirit of Christmas by giving back to the disabled community.”
