Beginning January 4, 2024, guests can now enjoy the best of both worlds with a specially curated combination tour that seamlessly integrates the historical richness of a carriage ride through the picturesque streets of Charleston with the awe-inspiring beauty of a harbor cruise and receive fantastic savings versus purchasing the tours individually.

The partnership brings an exciting opportunity for locals and tourists alike to delve into Charleston's rich history and natural splendor at an unbeatable value. The discounted combination tour provides a seamless and immersive experience, allowing participants to step back in time while exploring the city's historic district before embarking on a scenic harbor cruise getting perspectives by land and sea. Guests can choose to take the tours on the same day or split them up however they would like. There is no time limit on the combination ticket and guests can start with whichever tour they would like to take first. Both companies will sell on their respective websites, over the phone or in person.

"We are thrilled to partner with Old South Carriage Company to offer an unparalleled experience that showcases the best of Charleston's history and offers guests the most flexibility," said Drew Yochum, VP of Sales and Marketing of Charleston Harbor Tours. "This collaboration reflects our commitment to providing visitors with unique, memorable, and value-packed experiences. We have been the innovators of Charleston's best combination tour experiences for nearly 20 years and are very excited to add this new opportunity to our offerings for our guests."
