Carolena Lund, the Press Secretary for the Geoffrey Grammer for U.S. Congress campaign, highlighted the significance of this FEC filing, stating, "This FEC filing underscores Geoffrey's campaign is highly competitive and well-positioned to win Maryland's Democratic primary on May 14th, 2024."

Over $500K raised, 372K cash-on-hand & over 1,000 unique donors - so proud of our campaign team!"

Geoffrey Grammer, Democrat for U.S. Congress

Lund elaborated, "Geoffrey's message, centered on improving mental health care, restoring women's reproductive rights, strengthening the economy, advocating for Maryland's labor unions, and safeguarding our democracy, resonates deeply with constituents from the 6th district. Geoffrey's distinguished background as a retired U.S. Army Colonel with 25 years of service, recipient of the Bronze Star Medal, dedicated family man, and a psychiatrist, has broadly appealed to voters and donors."

In response to these achievements, Geoffrey Grammer expressed his pride in his campaign team, remarking, "I am immensely proud of my campaign team, and their unwavering dedication, for effectively spreading our message to residents of Maryland's 6th district."

Following his family's tradition of military service, Geoffrey Grammer served honorably for 25 years in the U.S. Army, including completing three overseas deployments. He retired in 2017 having earned the rank of Colonel. After his military service, he became the Chief Medical Officer for one of the nation's largest behavioral health practices.

During his first deployment to Iraq, Geoffrey and his team traveled by convoy to care for soldiers in combat zones. He was awarded the Bronze Star Medal for being the main driving force behind this mission, as well as the Combat Action Badge for performing duties while under fire. He is honored to have been interviewed by Christiane Amanpour for "60 Minutes" to discuss leading mental health professionals into remote combat areas so soldiers would not have to travel to access care.
