"Workin' My Way to Nashville" written by songwriters John

Michael Ferrari, Pepper Jay and Ray Ligon was named "Songwriter of the Year 50+" 2023 by the Kentucky Country Music Association. "Workin'" is in competition at "NACMAI" during its 2024 Country Music Week, March 11-17, at the Country Tonite Theatre in Pigeon Forge, Tennessee. The "Workin'" songwriters plan to be in attendance at both the NACMAI Induction Ceremony on March 16, and the Awards Show on March 17th.

"Workin' My Way to Nashville" was produced by Pepper Jay and recorded at Larry Beard Music Group, Nashville with studio musicians Wes Little (drums), Ethan Pilzer (bass), Troy Lancaster
