

The Preventive Measures Foundation Presents $125K Gift to Morehouse College for the Next Generation in Mental Health

The Preventive Measures Foundation aims to enhance mental wellness programs, for a healthier, more supportive environment for students at Morehouse College.

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, March 5, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Preventive Measures Foundation \(TPMF\), is proud to announce a significant donation of $125,000 to Morehouse College. This generous gift marks a substantial step in TPMF's commitment to fostering mental health representation and nurturing the next generation of mental health professionals.

This transformative donation will establish a $100,000 endowment over four years, specifically targeting scholarships for students in Health and Human Services degrees. Additionally, TPMF will contribute $20,000 to the Morehouse Counseling and Accessibility Services and $5,000 to the Career Development & Engagement office at Morehouse College.

TPMF's partnership with Morehouse College extends beyond financial support. Collaborative efforts with the Career Development & Engagement office will open avenues for jobs and internships within the Preventive Measures Wellness Enterprise, aligning with TPMF's mission to develop and employ culturally competent clinicians in the field of mental health.

"Our contribution to Morehouse College is more than a donation; it's an investment in the future of mental health care, particularly in the African American community, and among Black men, specifically." said Mr. Jones, Chairman of TPMF and CEO Preventive Measures, Inc. "As a father, I recognize the vital role that young Black men play in shaping our world. My sons have inspired me to ensure that Black men, are empowered to pursue excellence and self-development. This donation is part of our ongoing commitment to mentorship, career opportunities, and partnership in this vital field."
