February 29, 2024 – The CVS – China Visitors Summit Dubai, is proud to announce its partnership with the Waldorf Astoria Dubai Palm Jumeirah as an Official Hospitality Partner for the forthcoming Dubai summit scheduled for September 5-6. This collaboration marks a significant milestone in fostering international relationships and promoting tourism between China and the UAE.

As an esteemed Official Hospitality Partner, The Waldorf Astoria Dubai Palm Jumeirah will extend its renowned hospitality to participating Chinese buyers, offering them an exquisite four-night stay amidst unparalleled luxury and curated experiences. Moreover, the hotel will actively engage with buyers as a leading supplier participant at the CVS, showcasing its exceptional offerings during the summit.

The China Visitors Summit, renowned for attracting 125 highly valued and qualified Chinese travel buyers from mainland China, serves as a platform for exploring lucrative business prospects in the UAE and the wider Middle East region.

In 2024, CVS will elevate the experience for Chinese buyers by accommodating them across multiple distinguished hotel properties in Dubai, thereby enriching their understanding of the diverse hotel offerings available throughout the Emirate.

During the summit, travel suppliers will seize the opportunity to interact with all 125 participating Chinese buyers, scheduling 54 pre-confirmed meetings over the course of the event. Notably, in 2023, CVS welcomed 151 supplier organizations from 17 different countries in the Middle East.

Nestled within the dynamic city of Dubai, The Waldorf Astoria Dubai Palm Jumeirah offers a serene sanctuary where travelers can revel in the tranquility and splendor of Palm Jumeirah by day, while immersing themselves in the cosmopolitan allure of Dubai by night. The palatial hotel epitomizes modern luxury, boasting exceptional amenities, and delivering unparalleled service to discerning guests.
