Brody Brothers Pest Control Celebrates New Office with Donation to Eden Mill Nature Center in Bel Air, MD

We're thrilled to open our new Bel Air office. This expansion allows us to reach new customers, contribute to the community, and create local jobs.”

Levi Brody, President of Brody Brothers Pest Control

Serving the Community for Four Decades and Beyond

Established in 1984, Brody Brothers Pest Control has built a strong reputation for excellence across the Baltimore Metro area. Their commitment to customer satisfaction and expertise in pest control solutions has earned them numerous awards, including 10 Angi's Super Service Awards, 2 Best of Baltimore recognitions, and being named Baltimore's Best Places to Work. They are also a proud member of the Harford County Chamber of Commerce.

This expansion into Harford County signifies its dedication to serving a wider clientele and fostering long-term relationships within the community.

For Levi & Talis Brody, owners of Brody Brothers, this expansion is more than just business growth. It's about bringing their second-generation expertise and passion for a pest-free environment to a new community.

Giving Back to Nature: Supporting Eden Mill Nature Center

As a company built on family values and environmental responsibility, giving back is paramount for Brody Brothers. To celebrate their arrival, they'll donate to Eden Mill Nature Center, a local non-profit dedicated to environmental education and appreciation. This aligns perfectly with Brody Brothers' commitment to protecting Maryland families and the environment.

Investing in Harford County's Future

The new office brings not only expanded service options for Harford County residents but also exciting job opportunities. In addition to expanding its services, Brody Brothers Pest Control is delighted to announce new employment opportunities in Harford County. As part of its growth strategy, the company seeks highly motivated individuals to join its team in Bel Air. Available positions include pest control experts, Customer Service Heroes, and administrative assistants.
