This award recognizes Cicero's commitment to excellence in the utilization, analysis, and management of data to drive decision-making and strategic planning.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, UNITED STATES, April 10, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cicero®, a leading management consulting firm with emphasis in the field of data analytics and services, is honored to announce its 10th recognition of the prestigious “Best of State” award in the Data Services category. This distinguished award recognizes Cicero's commitment to excellence and innovation in the utilization, analysis, and management of data to drive decision-making and strategic planning.

We see this award as a milestone in our ongoing journey and we remain dedicated to exploring new frontiers in data services and are excited about the opportunities that lie ahead.”

Randy Shumway, CEO

“The “Best of State” award is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our entire team at Cicero,” said Randy Shumway, CEO of Cicero. “We are deeply committed to pushing the boundaries of what's possible with data, and this recognition further validates our efforts to deliver exceptional value to our clients and the industry as a whole.”

Cicero has been at the forefront of the data services industry, providing cutting-edge solutions that empower businesses, government entities, and social impact organizations to harness the power of data effectively. With a focus on innovation, reliability, and client satisfaction, Cicero has developed a robust suite of services that address the complex challenges of data management and analysis.

Looking forward, Cicero is committed to maintaining its leadership position in the industry by continuing to invest in research and development, expanding its service offerings, and fostering partnerships that enhance its capabilities and reach.
