

Angel Investors Network Debuts Nashville Chapter: A Beacon for Veteran Entrepreneurs

Angel Investors Network Expands to Nashville, Fostering Growth and Opportunity for Veteran Entrepreneurs

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, April 16, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Angel Investors Network (AIN), the leading network for connecting entrepreneurs with investors, is thrilled to announce the grand opening of its inaugural Nashville chapter. Scheduled from May 29-31, this event will be held at the esteemed Factory at Franklin, symbolizing a new era of opportunity for the local and veteran entrepreneurial communities.

Angel Investors Network provides a platform for investors to seek out and find new investment opportunities across several asset classes, including private equity, real estate, and publicly traded markets.

The initiative, led by CEO and Navy Veteran Jeff Barnes, was initially slated for 2019 but faced delays due to the COVID-19 pandemic. With renewed vigor, AIN is set to fulfill its commitment to Nashville, reinforcing its mission to facilitate business growth and success.

Launching in Nashville means more than growth; it's about homecoming and giving back. We empower veterans to excel in business, providing support and resources."

A Mission Rooted in Service and Success

Barnes' vision for AIN's expansion into Nashville is deeply personal and professional. "Launching in Nashville is not just about growth; it's about homecoming and giving back. We are here to empower veterans to leverage their skills in the business world, ensuring they have the support and resources to thrive," Barnes remarked.

Exclusive Offer for Our Veterans

As a token of appreciation for their service, AIN is offering veterans a 50% discount on event tickets. Attendees are encouraged to use the coupon code "DD214" to avail of this special offer, underscoring AIN's dedication to facilitating veterans' successful transition into entrepreneurship.

A Silent Auction for a Cause

The Nashville chapter launch will also host a silent auction, with all proceeds directed to Advancing the Line for Veterans (ATLVets.org). This initiative underscores AIN's commitment to the welfare and advancement of the veteran community, aiming to foster an environment of growth and mutual support.

Supporting Veterans in Business Ownership

As a Navy veteran, Mr. Barnes understands the challenges military veterans face when seeking employment and a new mission after their military career. To this end, Angel Investors Network has partnered with Patriot Growth Capital (PGC) to make business ownership and financial independence a reality for veterans. PGCs will be present at the event in support of Angel Investors Network and bring a number of veterans who are utilizing their programs to transition from the military into a new role and mission as business owners.

Be Part of a Transformative Experience

This event marks the beginning of AIN's presence in Nashville and represents a collective step forward in supporting and celebrating veteran entrepreneurs. By participating, attendees will contribute to a meaningful cause, gaining insights into entrepreneurship while supporting veteran business owners.
