

Angelique Kidjo, Stanley Clarke, Jonathan Butler to Perform at Dymally International Jazz Fest 2024

CARSON, CA, UNITED STATES, April 16, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The unofficial start of the festival season will kick off in Los Angeles' South Bay with the Dymally International Jazz and Arts Festival on Saturday, April 27 at the Dignity Health Sports Park Tennis Stadium in Carson.

This year's lineup is stellar and is sure to draw a diverse crowd of attendees.

Five-time Grammy winner and African music icon Angelique Kidjo will headline the festival along with co-headliner bassist and founding member of Return to Forever Stanley Clarke. Other performers include South African singer-songwriter and guitarist Jonathan Butler, singer Judith Hill, noted saxophonist Teodross Avery, and Third World, one of the most popular and longest-lived reggae bands of all time. The main stage will be hosted by comedian and actor Capone and award-winning journalist Roland Martin of the Black Star Network. Doors open at 12 noon. Tickets are on sale now at axs.com.

The day-long festival will include a curated Visual Artist Marketplace featuring Black artists, art dealers, and galleries selling original paintings, limited edition prints, home decor, accent pieces, and gifts.

An exciting slate of emerging artists will be featured on the second stage.

"The Dymally International Jazz and Arts Festival is not just a concert--it's a destination and a celebration of creativity, innovation, and the enduring legacy of jazz music," explained festival founder Dr. Anthony Samad. "Join us for a day of unforgettable performances, meaningful connections, and shared experiences that will resonate long after the final note has been played"

Dymally International Jazz and Arts Festival

The festival is produced by Rainbow Promotions.

Since 2019, the Dymally International Jazz Arts and Arts Festival has used artistic culture to promote and inspire thought in honor of the late Mervyn Dymally, an internationalist who traveled to over 60 countries throughout his political career-promoting the exchange of cultures throughout the world. The Festival seeks to honor his legacy in bringing the best of jazz and jazz-influenced music, arts, and culture to Cal State University, Dominguez Hills, and surrounding communities.

The proceeds of the annual event benefit university programs such as the CSUDH Presidential Scholars and non-profit programs, The Dymally Fellows Program, and the African American Leadership Training Summit.

Jasmyne Cannick
jasmyne@thestrategicmaven.com
The Strategic Maven

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/703975029>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2024 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.