About Cybersecurity Performance Management (CPM)™

TDI defined and created the Cybersecurity Performance Management (CPM) framework in 2017 to help organizations achieve more in cybersecurity and resilience. Recognized by Gartner® as a new category with a "High Benefit Rating", CPM is the proven cyber management framework for unprecedented visibility into meaningful quantitative measures of cyber performance, aligned to strategic cyber objectives, tracked over time. Our approach finally fills the visibility gap with actionable insights across the entirety of a security program, providing a baseline and ensuring continuous management and improvement across dimensions of risk management, compliance, and operational effectiveness.
