Silicon Valley firm spotlights diverse AAPI artists shaping underground art scene.

SILICON VALLEY , CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, May 24, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Anna D. Smith Fine Art and Real Estate Broker is excited to announce the release of an article titled "5-Notable Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders in Underground Art," now available on their website. This article celebrates the remarkable contributions of Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) artists who are making significant impacts in the underground art world.

FEATURED ARTISTS:

1. JEN BARTEL - Recognized for her dynamic graphic novel covers and collaborations with Marvel and Adidas, Bartel's art is known for its vivid colors and strong female characters.
2. WARREN CHANG - A painter specializing in realism, Chang captures the dignity and struggles of everyday life, often focusing on laborers and the disenfranchised.
