There are so many reasons to enjoy Bertha Mae's Brownies.

"Did you just have a meeting and want to thank you," says Pomerantz. "Or perhaps you wanted to congratulate someone on a special event. Sending brownies is the perfect way of showing you care."

A major distinction of Bertha Mae's Brownies compared to other companies is her game-changing GameTime Brownies. These low-sugar, protein-packed treats are bursting with flavor while serving as a healthy alternative for anyone mindful of their waistline. Offered in various flavors, GameTime Brownies give Bertha Mae's Brownies a sweet edge over the competition.

"Our GameTime Brownies are incredibly tasty and good for you," says Pomerantz. "It's important to offer a delicious treat that you can feel good about eating, especially for health-conscious people. With low sugar and high protein, GameTime Brownies provide a guilt-free indulgence that stands out."

If you're not in California, don't worry. Bertha Mae's Brownies offers nationwide delivery for customers who are too far away to visit in person. Pomerantz emphasizes that her brownies maintain their quality during shipping and that she ensures they are sent at the right time to guarantee freshness.

Bertha Mae's Brownie Company

Bertha Mae's Brownie Co. emerged as a tribute to Bertha Mae, born in Hope, Arkansas, in 1880, whose legendary brownie recipe captivated generations. Passed down through the family, Bertha Mae's great-granddaughter, Wendy Pomerantz, felt compelled to share this cherished recipe with the world over a century later.

Though staying true to the essence of Bertha Mae's original creation, Wendy introduced delightful variations to the recipe, enhancing its appeal while preserving its timeless flavor. Wendy fondly recalls her great-grandmother as a culinary genius and a source of boundless warmth and affection. With Bertha Mae's Brownie Co., Wendy pays homage to her beloved ancestor, crafting delectable treats that evoke memories of cherished moments and enduring connections.
