The parade is a vibrant display of unity, with colorful floats, dynamic performances, and an atmosphere of joy and solidarity. Starting at the iconic Angel of Independence and culminating at the Zócalo, the city's main square, the parade is a testament to Mexico City's dedication to LGBTIQ+ rights and its vibrant culture.

"We demand to live with dignity!" is the motto of the Colectiva de Organizaciones Civiles (Civil Organizations Collective) who announced that the event will take place in Mexico City on Saturday, June 29. Let us remember that for 46 years, it has been celebrated on the last Saturday of June.

But the parade is just the beginning when it comes to the tapestry of events that take place across the city.

Starting from June 20, the city will kick off the Festival Mix Mexico. Nearly LGBTIQ+-themed films are part of the showcase that will be exhibited in the city. The opening takes place at the Teatro de la Ciudad Esperanza Iris, featuring a screening of the film, "Todo el silencio," (All the Silence).

High Heel Race: This fabulous event, held June 22, invites everyone to don their best stilettos to participate in the High Heel Race, taking place from the intersection of Sonora and Durango streets in Roma to Parque Espana. A participation fee of 200 pesos is required and the proceeds will go to Inspira Cambio A.C., an organization that supports LGBTIQ+ individuals' sexual and mental health needs.

LGBT Cup 2024 in Mexico City: This year's Copa LGBT will take place from June 27 to 30 at Ciudad Deportiva de la Magdalena Mixhuca. The competition includes tennis, soccer, basketball, diving, swimming, Olympic wrestling, and many other sports. It is expected to draw more than 2,000 athletes from different states across Mexico. There will also be a five-kilometer nighttime race on Paseo de la Reforma, which kicks off on June 28 at 6 p.m.

Latin American Pride 2024: Latin American Pride 2023 will remain in the city's memory forever, which is why CDMX invites everyone to attend Latin American Pride 2024 on June 27. The promise is a bigger and more spectacular pride celebration than last year.

Groove City Pride: Groove City presents a night filled with music, color, and community to celebrate diversity and love in all its forms. Expect DJs from the Mexican scene playing the best of house, afro house, and tech, along with drag shows, exclusive Groove City merchandise, and local artists. It's an inclusive and safe environment where attendees can be themselves and celebrate with pride. Get ready to dance all night on the terrace with the best view of Reforma at this dynamic PRIDE party on June 29th. The event will run from 7:00 p.m. on June 29th to 12:30 a.m. on June 30.

Sáfica Party and Lesbian Sunset: Also on June 29, in collaboration with Fiesta Sáfica and Lesbian Sunset, CDMX is offering a unique experience at one of the city's most exclusive Polanco venues.
