

CallCabinet Enabled for Webex Calling Compliance on NUWAVE's iPILOT

CallCabinet Expands Groundbreaking Call Compliance and Analytics Solution for Webex Calling on NUWAVE's iPILOT Platform

BOCA RATON, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, June 13, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- CallCabinet, the leader in compliant call recording and AI-driven conversation analytics, announced today its innovative solution is now available for both Microsoft Teams and Webex Calling via NUWAVE's iPILOT platform. With Zoom Phone to soon follow, this strategic expansion positions CallCabinet as the first compliant call recording and conversation analytics provider to seamlessly integrate with both leading communication platforms through iPILOT.

CallCabinet's unified approach across UC platforms ensures a single, powerful solution for compliance and analytics, empowering our entire partner community.”

“We're thrilled to integrate and expand CallCabinet in our Multi-UC enablement through our iPILOT platform,” said David Spears, NUWAVE Chief Product Officer. “This partnership aligns perfectly with our vision of providing a seamless, Multi-UC management and provisioning experience for our partners. CallCabinet's unified approach across UC platforms ensures a single, powerful solution for compliance and analytics, empowering our entire partner community.”

CallCabinet is the first compliant call recording solution to be made available for both Webex Calling and Microsoft

Teams on NUWAVE's iPILOT. The availability of CallCabinet within iPILOT means any combination of Microsoft Teams and Webex Calling (and soon Zoom) licenses can immediately be provisioned with any of CallCabinet's solutions.

The addition of Webex Calling to iPILOT is a strategic expansion that perfectly aligns with CallCabinet's partnership vision for the future. This move underscores the growing market demand for cross-platform solutions that seamlessly integrate with cloud communication tools. CallCabinet's solutions, designed for interoperability with all major calling and conferencing platforms, were a natural fit for NUWAVE's iPILOT, making them the leading choice for compliant call recording and analytics.

"Expanding our solution to support Webex Calling in addition to Microsoft Teams on NUWAVE's iPILOT platform is a game-changer for their partners and their customers looking to ensure fully compliant communications environments," said Ryan Kahan, CEO of CallCabinet. "NUWAVE's iPILOT is seeing increased adoption of CallCabinet as the first cross-platform compliance recording solution, which is a significant testament to our business strategy and our platform's ever-evolving feature set."

As businesses globally continue to grapple with fast-changing regulatory requirements and a plethora of communications options, CallCabinet's availability through NUWAVE's iPILOT is set to bring a much-needed point of unification and single point of management.
