Located at 170 Northside Drive SW Suite 96 in the historic Castleberry Hill neighborhood of Atlanta, Atlantucky, one of the nation's few black-owned breweries, is owned by multi-platinum-selling, Southern hip-hop trailblazers Nappy Roots. The name, "Atlantucky," celebrates the band's historical roots of being founded in Kentucky and settling in Atlanta. The brewery took home Bronze in the Cream Stout category in the 2020 U.S. Open Beer Championship before opening its taproom in the shadows of Mercedes-Benz Stadium and the historically black colleges and universities (HBCUs) of Morehouse College, Spelman College and Clark Atlanta University. The brewery recently launched a pie and panini menu named "Atlantucky Pies & Paninis," that is crafted with high-quality ingredients and caters to diverse tastes ranging from meat lovers to veggie combinations with a variety of gourmet options.
