Unfiltered and unstoppable, The Soapgirls – sisters Mie and Mille Debray – have carved a unique niche in the rock and grunge landscape with their fearless approach to music and performance. From their beginnings busking on the streets of Cape Town, the girls put their heart and soul into every performance, creating a high-octane live show that is immersive and unforgettable and a testament to their dedication to self-expression, freedom and empowerment.

The band is renowned for its close connection with fans – known as Soapsuds – building a community that transcends the stage, with the band holding multiple live streams on YouTube and Instagram each week that pull in thousands of views. This is a rare opportunity to witness a band that embodies the spirit of rock in its purest form. Tickets are expected to sell out fast.

About

The Soapgirls play grunge and rock, drawing influences from Alice in Chains, Lamb of God and Nirvana, through to Fleetwood Mac, Blondie and classic rock and pop. The music is gritty and rocky, yet melodic and catchy, with vocals that range from sweet harmonies to raw growls. The band tours for 6-8 months each year, playing across the UK, Europe, Japan and USA, steadily building a growing fanbase and carving their own unique niche. They have released four albums, amassed millions of views on YouTube, hundreds of thousands of streams on Spotify, with tens of thousands of followers on Spotify, Instagram and YouTube.
