

Twelve Stone Health Partners Announces Roanoke, VA Infusion Center Opening

Joining Other Locations Supporting Cities Surrounding the Northern Virginia Area

FRANKLIN, TENNESSEE, UNITED STATES, June 18, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Twelve Stone Health Partners, a leading provider of comprehensive chronic care medication services, today announced the opening of their newest infusion center in Roanoke, VA located at 2965 Colonnade Drive, Suite 140, Roanoke, VA 24018.

The center is TwelveStone's 21st location, joining Infusion Centers in Tennessee (Bellevue, Chattanooga, Knoxville, Murfreesboro, Memphis, Mt. Juliet, North Nashville, and Spring Hill), Georgia (Canton, Cumming, Duluth, Lithonia, Peachtree City, and Smyrna), Virginia (Dulles, Norfolk, Richmond, and Sterling) and Kentucky (Lexington, Louisville.) These facilities provide a patient-centric process focusing on assisting patients with chronic condition management.

It is an honor to offer an exceptional patient experience to residents of this community.”

Shane Reeves

“We are excited to have a freestanding infusion center in the Roanoke regional area with Sarah Whalen, MSN, APRN, NP-C Clinical Supervisor, and her team managing the location,” shared Shane Reeves, chief executive officer, TwelveStone Health Partners. “It is an honor to offer an exceptional patient experience to residents of this community.”

TwelveStone patients receive care in a private treatment room and benefit from the care and support of certified clinicians. Free Wi-Fi, snacks, and drinks are also offered to patients and caregivers, creating a positive patient experience with personalized attention.
