

Fraud.net CEO Whitney Anderson Dubbed a 2024 Cybersecurity Pundit

Available to Media Outlets Globally for Fraud Management and Prevention Expertise

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, June 19, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Fraud.net, an award-winning fraud and risk management platform, is excited to announce that Whitney Anderson, its CEO and co-founder, has been dubbed one of Cybersecurity Ventures 2024 Pundits. The inaugural 2024 List of Cybersecurity Pundits features experts with deep domain expertise in one or more technical categories. The Pundits also have experience analyzing topics and stories, providing media outlets with thoughtful and thorough comments.

Whitney Anderson leverages 25+ years of experience in applied AI, advanced analytics, and real-time payments to drive game-changing value for organizations. He is a sought-after speaker and thought leader on AI safety, fraud, and risk.

On being included in the list, Anderson stated: "I am excited to be joining this elite team of experts recognized by Cybersecurity Ventures. I look forward to sharing valuable insights and commentary with any media outlet seeking to navigate the complexities of fraud management and prevention."
