Portraits by Z, a San Diego-based studio renowned for empowering boudoir photography sessions, announces the launch of its newest set, the "Mirage Room". This addition enhances the studio's diverse range of themes, offering a space with a touch of bohemian elegance and an exotic twist, and designed to offer clients an inspirational photographic backdrop. Its carefully curated selection of decor complements the bohemian theme, creating an inviting space ideal for personal and artistic expression.

"The Mirage Room is really about bringing a new vibe to our studio – one that sparks sensuality and freedom." said Zeynep Dogu, owner of Portraits by Z. "With its eclectic mix of lush fabrics, vibrant colors, and unique decorative elements, it's a place where our clients can explore different facets of themselves in a relaxed and inspiring setting."

This setting is now available for client bookings, aiming to attract individuals seeking a distinctive and enriching experience for their boudoir photos.
