Resolution of a wide range of commercial and civil litigation with appropriate legal strategies Key Services

Bankruptcy and Financial Restructuring Proceedings: The firm has advised private and foreign clients in debt restructuring during bankruptcy proceedings, achieving significant results for secured and unsecured creditors, corporations, and representing insolvency specialists (Conciliator and Receiver).

Commercial and Civil Litigation: The litigation practice addresses judicial controversies involving national and international corporations in diverse matters such as real estate, moral damages, medical malpractice, commercial leases, and more. Strategic legal solutions with effective negotiation are sought for clients' benefit.

Telecommunications: The firm offers advisory services in the telecommunications sector, ensuring compliance with obligations from the granting of concessions and authorizations, and defense within administrative penalty procedures for mobile telephone and internet service providers.

Success Stories:

Hard Rock Mexico: In 2014, MF Lawyers represented Grupo Hard Rock Mexico (restaurants) in filing 13 bankruptcy petitions before 4th District Court in Civil Matters in Mexico City identified by the court files 610, 616 to 627/2014. Despite strikes and other oppositions, these debt restructuring processes were concluded within two years.

Debt Restructuring: The firm represented the conciliator and trustee in the successful debt restructuring of a company in the industrial food production industry. A bankruptcy
