

Agricultural Networking & Crowdfunding Event "Kemono Festival" Set for Fall 2024

NAGOYA, AICHI, JAPAN, July 8, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ACTxSTYLE Co., Ltd., which provides the agricultural support service AgLINK, will host the Kemono Festival in Ena City, Gifu Prefecture, in the fall of 2024. This event, aimed at agriculture enthusiasts, will feature activities such as a game meat barbecue and provide an opportunity for networking.

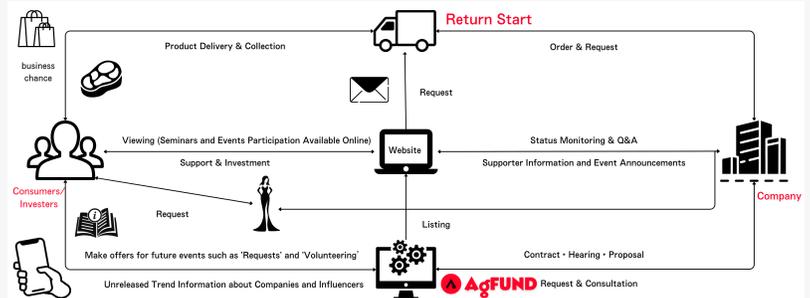

- Kemono Festival Event Overview
Date: Fall 2024
Location: Vicinity of Ena City, Gifu Prefecture
Activities: Game meat barbecue, agricultural discussions, and more

- Event Purpose
The Kemono Festival aims to increase awareness and attract participants for the upcoming agricultural management support franchise AgLINK, which is operated by the company, by fostering connections with those interested in agriculture and current agricultural workers. The event seeks to raise initial funds for new franchise members, and participants will be introduced to the company's vision and specific initiatives on how this project will enhance agriculture in Japan.

- Crowdfunding Campaign
A crowdfunding campaign will be launched in conjunction with the Kemono Festival. The initiative has garnered international attention, being featured on domestic and international platforms and media, such as the Crowdfunding Meikan. Through the success of this campaign,
