

Nathan Hochman Raises Record $1.3M in L.A. County D.A.'s Race for November 2024 General Election

Fundraising success will allow Hochman to amplify messaging about his plan to restore public safety in region

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, July 2, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nathan Hochman, the former federal prosecutor and defense attorney who has a wide polling lead in the race for Los Angeles County District Attorney, today announced that he has raised a record of more than $1.3 million in his general election campaign to defeat George Gascon and restore public safety in Los Angeles County.

Including his fundraising for the primary election, Hochman has now raised nearly $3.5 million from a broad coalition of donors – Democrats, Republicans and Independents. No district attorney candidate in L.A. County history has ever raised as much money as Hochman by June 30 from such a broad coalition in an election year.

The $1.3 million fundraising is particularly impressive because campaign laws limit contributions for the general election to $1,500 per person. More than 2,000 individuals have already contributed to the campaign.

Significantly, Hochman is soundly beating Gascon in three important metrics – polling, fundraising and endorsements – making him the clear frontrunner in the Nov. 5 election.

“These contributions are coming from communities throughout the county, from voters from all political perspectives,” Hochman said. “There is significant momentum and enthusiasm about my campaign.”

Recent polling shows Hochman with a massive 50% to 25% lead over Gascon, with voters expressing deep dissatisfaction with the current D.A.'s policies.
