This collaboration marks a significant milestone in the mission to address burnout among dental professionals and revolutionize the dental industry.

Presto Smile USA

PrestoSmile® recognizes the relentless dedication and hard work of clinical teams in providing exceptional care to patients every day. Despite their best efforts, burnout remains a prevalent issue in the dental field. With over 100 years of combined clinical experience across North America, PrestoSmile® is committed to developing tools to alleviate burnout and empower dental team members.

As part of this commitment, PrestoSmile® is proud to welcome Holland Haiis to the My Presto Guru™ as a human-centered leadership solution specialist. Holland Haiis is a respected business and workplace strategist known for helping CEOs, Medical Specialists, and Elite Teams improve leadership, optimize team performance, and enhance mental health with science-based solutions.

Together, PrestoSmile® and Holland Haiis will continue to innovate and develop specialized AI tools aimed at eradicating burnout among dental professionals. By combining PrestoSmile®'s cutting-edge technology with Holland Haiis's proven strategies for increasing employee retention, boosting employee engagement, and enhancing team effectiveness, this partnership aims to transform the landscape of self-care and patient care in dentistry.

"Holland Haiis's expertise in combating burnout and human-centered leadership solutions aligns perfectly with our mission at PrestoSmile® to support the well-being of dental professionals and improve patient care," said Billie Prisby, CEO of PrestoSmile®. "This partnership represents a significant step forward in our efforts to address burnout and create a more sustainable and fulfilling work environment for dental teams."

Holland Haiis added, "I am thrilled to partner with PrestoSmile® in our shared mission to enhance leadership, improve team performance, and foster a culture of well-being in the dental industry. By combining our strengths and innovative approaches, we aim to drive positive change and empower dental professionals to thrive in their roles."
